declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of a share shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien if any, on such shares.

- (2) For the purpose of enforcing lien the Board may sell the share subject thereto in such manner as it thinks fit, but no sale shall be made until such time for payment as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his/her executor or administrator or his/her committee, curator bonis or other legal representative, as the case may be and default shall have been made by him/her or them in the payment of the moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share for 14 days after the date of such notice. As to enforcing lien by sale
32. The net proceeds of the sale of share shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the share before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale. Application of proceeds of sale of share
33. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of the share sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, not to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such share, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively. Validity of sale in exercise of lien and after forfeiture
34. Where any share under the powers in that behalf herein contained is sold by the Board and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered up to the Company by the former holder of such share, the Board may issue a new certificate for such share distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate not so delivered. Board may issue new certificates
35. The provisions of these Articles relating to forfeiture and lien shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company. Provisions as to forfeiture and lien to apply mutatis mutandis to debentures, etc.
- TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION
36. Save as provided in Section 56 of the Act, no transfer of a share shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and Execution of transfer, etc.

executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or, if no such certificate is in existence, the Letter of Allotment of the share. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the member in respect of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

37. Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made either by the transferor or the transferee, provided that, where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall in the case of a partly paid share be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 56 of the Act, and subject to the provisions of these Articles the Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration of the transfer was made by the transferee. Application by transferor
38. The instrument of transfer shall be in the form prescribed by the Act or the Rules made there under or where no such form is prescribed in the usual common form or any other form approved by Stock Exchanges in India or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.
39. Subject to the provisions of Section 58 of the Act, the Board, may decline to register – The Board may refuse to register transfer
- (a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve; or

MINUTES

121. (1) The Company shall cause minutes of the proceedings of every general meeting of any class of members or creditors and every resolution passed by postal ballot or of every meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board to be prepared and signed in such manner as may be prescribed by the Rules and kept by making within thirty days of the conclusion of every such meeting concerned or passing of resolution by postal ballot entries thereof in books kept for that purpose with their pages consecutively numbered, each page of every such book being initialled or signed and the last page of the record of proceedings of each meeting in such books being dated and signed, in the case of minutes of proceedings of a meeting of the Board or a Committee thereof, by the Chairman of the said meeting or the Chairman of the Minutes to be Made next succeeding meeting and, in the case of minutes of proceedings of a general meeting, by the Chairman of the same meeting within the aforesaid period of thirty days or in the event of the death or inability of that Chairman within that period, by a Director duly authorised by the Board for the purposes, provided that, in no case, shall the minutes of proceedings of a meeting be attached to any such book as aforesaid by pasting or otherwise:

The Minutes shall contain particulars-

- (a) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of any Committee of the Board and in the case of each, resolution passed at the meeting, the names of Directors, if any dissenting from, or not concurring in, the resolution;
- (b) of all orders made by the Board and Committees of the Board;
- (c) of all appointments of Directors and other officers of the Company; and
- (d) of all proceedings of general meetings of the Company and of meeting of the Board and Committees of the Board.

The minutes of each meeting shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings thereat.

PROVIDED that no matter need be included in any such Minutes which the Chairman of the meeting, in his absolute discretion, is of opinion—

- (a) is, or could reasonable be regarded as, defamatory of any person;
- (b) is irrelevant or immaterial to the proceedings; or
- (c) is detrimental to the interests of the Company.

- (2) Any such Minutes of any meeting of the Board or of any Committee of the Board or of the Company in general meeting if kept in the manner provided in paragraph (1) above shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded in such Minutes. The Minute Books of general meetings of the Company shall be kept at the Office and shall be open to inspection by members on business days between the hours of 11.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

122. Subject to the provision of the Act, the Control of the Company shall be vested in the Board who shall be entitled to exercise all such powers, and to do all such acts and things as the Company is authorized to exercise and do; the Board shall be entitled to pay all expenses of and incidental to the formation of the Company and in particular all expenses incurred by the promoters for the purpose. Provided that the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act or thing which is directed or required whether by the Act or any other statute or by the Memorandum of the Company or by these Articles or otherwise, to be exercised or done by the Company in general meeting. Provided further that in exercising any such power or doing any such act or thing the Board shall be subject to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Act or any other statute or in the Memorandum of the Company or in these Articles, or in any regulations not inconsistent therewith and fully made there under, including regulations made by the Company in general meeting but no regulation made by the Company in general meetings shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
- General power of Company vested in the Board

THE SEAL

123. (1) The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal and the Seal shall never be used except by the authority previously given of the Board or a Committee of the Board authorised by the Board in that behalf and, save as provided in Article 13 (1) hereof, two Directors or one Director and the Secretary, if any or one Director and Authorised Person duly authorized by the Board shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed. Provided nevertheless, that any instrument bearing the Seal of the Company and issued for valuable consideration shall be binding on the Company notwithstanding any irregularity touching the authority of the Board to issue the same.
- Custody of Seal
- (2) The Company shall also be at liberty to have an official seal for the use in any territory, district or place outside India.

ANNUAL RETURNS

124. The Company shall comply with the provision of Sections 92 of the Act as to the making of Annual Returns.
- Annual Returns

RESERVES

125. The Board may, from time to time before recommending any Reserves dividend, set apart any and such other portion of the profits of the Company as it thinks fit as Reserves to meet contingencies or for the liquidation of any debentures, debts or other liabilities of the Company, for equalization of dividends, for repairing, improving or maintaining any of the property of the Company and for such other purposes of the Company as the Board in its absolute discretion thinks conducive to the interests of the Company; and may, subject to the provisions of Section 186 of the Act, invest the several sums so set aside upon such investments (other than shares of the Company) as it may think fit, and from time to time deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, and may divide the Reserves into such special funds as it think fit, with full power to employ the Reserves or any parts thereof in the business of the Company, and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

126. All moneys carried to the Reserves shall nevertheless remain and be profits of the Company applicable, subject to due provisions being made for actual loss or depreciation, for the payment of dividends and such moneys and all the other moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes of the Company may, subject to the provisions of Sections 186 of the Act, be invested by the Board in or upon such investments or securities as it may select or may be used as working capital or may be kept at any Bank on deposit or otherwise as the Board may, from time to time, think proper. Investment of money

CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES

127. Any general meeting may resolve that any moneys, investments, or other assets forming part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserves, or any Capital Redemption Reserve Account or in the hands of the Company and available for dividends or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account be capitalised and distributed amongst such of the members as would be entitled to receive the same if distributed by way of dividends and in the same proportions on the footing that they become entitled thereto as capital and that all or any part of such capitalised fund be applied on behalf of such members in paying up in full any un-issued shares, debentures or debenture-stock of the Company which shall be distributed accordingly or in or towards payment of the uncalled liability on any issued shares, and that such distribution or payment shall be accepted by such members in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalised sum. Provided that any sum standing to the credit of a Share Premium Account or a Capital Redemption Reserve Account may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in the paying up of un-issued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares. Capitalisation of Reserves
128. A general meeting may resolve that any surplus moneys arising from Surplus moneys

the realisation of any capital assets of the Company or any investments representing the same, or any other undistributed profits of the Company not subject to charge for income tax, be distributed among the members on the footing that they receive the same as capital.

129. For the purpose of giving effect to any resolution under Articles 127 and 128 hereof the Board may settle any difficulty which may arise in regard to the distribution as it thinks expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates, coupon and may fix the value for distribution of any specific assets, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest such cash or specific assets, in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund as may seem expedient to the Board. Where requisite a proper contract shall be filed in accordance with Section 39 of the Act, and the Board may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund, and such appointment shall be effective. Fractional certificates etc.

DIVIDENDS

130. Subject to the rights of members entitled to shares (if any) with preferential or special rights attached thereto, the profits of the Company which it shall from time to time be determined to divide in respect of any year or other period shall be applied in the payment of a dividend on the Equity Shares of the Company but so that a partly paid-up share shall only entitle the members in respect thereof to such proportion of the distribution upon a fully paid up share as the amount paid thereon bears to the nominal amount of such share and so that where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. Provided always that any capital paid up on a share during the period in respect of which a dividend is declared shall, unless otherwise resolved, only entitle the Member holding such share to a proportionate amount of such dividend from the date of payment by the Member. How profits shall be divisible
131. The Company in general meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interest in the profits and may, subject to the provisions of Section 123 of the Act, fix the time for payment. Declaration of Dividends

136.	The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company. In addition to its rights under Article 46, the Board may also retain the dividends payable upon shares referred to in the Transmission Article until the person entitled thereto complies with the provisions of Article 45.	Debts may be deducted from dividend payable
137.	Any general meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the members of such amount as the meeting fixes, but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him, and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend and the dividend may, if so resolved by the Company in general meeting, be set off against the call.	Dividend and call together
138.	No dividend shall be payable except in cash provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit the capitalisation of profits or reserves of a Company for the purpose of issuing fully paid-up bonus shares or paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on any shares held by the members of the Company.	Dividend in cash
139.	A transfer of shares shall not pass the rights to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer by the Company.	Effect of transfer
140.	No dividend shall be paid in respect of any share except to the member registered in respect of such share or to his order or to his bankers but nothing contained in this Article shall be deemed to require the bankers of a member to make a separate application to the Company for the payment of the dividend.
